Paper Path: My Own Tree of Musings Alex Kelley
2014-09-05 “I long to gallivant across the earth, frolic through the countryside and open fields.” The first of many more works to come, Paper Path: My Own Tree of Musings is a collection of carefully polished, handcrafted poems hatched from the mind of a spirited young girl just barely out of her teens. It turns every day things—her cat, outer space, even bullying—into profound, thought-provoking acrostics, haikus, old high school works, and a special piece modeled after Geoffrey Chaucer’s Canterbury Tales. Kelley dives deep into the spiritual roots that make her so strong, from direct Bible passages to her own creations. She provides an individual section that allows the reader to get an inside look into the author herself, but not in the way anyone is expecting!

The International Student's Guide to Writing a Research Paper Janine Carlock 2017

The International Student's Guide to Writing a Research Paper is a reference text for undergraduate students and those in ESL or bridge courses who are writing a research paper for the first time. This book is partly an update of Writing a Research Paper (by Lionel Menasche, 1998) and partly a companion to The ESL Writer's Handbook. Like WRP, teachers can move through the writing process in stages to end up with a thorough and coherent research paper. Like a handbook, the text is less dense, with explanations provided in sections for easy comprehension and practice exercises included. Fear Not Eric H. F. Law 2020-02-04 Learn how to face your fears and and live into courageous and faithful action with Fear Not. Americans live in a culture of fear, whether we know it or care to admit it. Who will attack us next? Who will steal our jobs? Whose relationship undermines the sanctity of mine? In an era when manipulative messaging is unavoidable, politicians, media, marketers, and even faith leaders play on our fears and use them to win elections, gain attention, sell products, and influence the way you view those around you — all in the name of claiming power. Fear Not subverts insidious fear-based messaging with the creation of courageous communities committed to truth-telling, grace, hope, and love. Drawing on decades as a community-building and church growth leader for churches and nonprofit organizations, Eric H.F. Law shares practical resources and processes for bringing diverse people together to build authentic relationships and share their truth. Each chapter includes suggested activities and questions for discussion and tips for creating small discussion groups.

My Polish-American Mother Frances Lareau
2011-04-11 THE BOX Since I was a child boxes have always intrigued me. I had always wondered what type of treasures and memories individuals would place in a box and keep forever. My mother had kept everything she had treasured and wanted to keep secret from the world in a particular box. I remember when my mom moved in with me she had a box filled with her paper and her stuff that she treasured. I watched her place the box methodically under the window by her bed. This box stayed there until her death. My mom being a secretive person had always intrigued me. Several months after her death I realized it was now time to clean her room. As I was cleaning her dresser, I looked into the mirror and I stared at that box for several minutes. The moment I picked up the box, I know my journey to learning about our relationship was about to begin.
